

Toilet Training for Children with Special Needs

This 2 hour DVD provides an overview of practical toilet training techniques and core principles for success. The intended audience for this DVD are families of children with disabilities struggling with toilet training issues. Curriculum developed by Susan Hepburn, PhD is presented as well as vignettes taking viewers through the toilet training process. The DVD concludes with a parent's perspective on the techniques presented and words of wisdom for other parents going through the toilet training process.

Susan Hepburn, PhD, Clinical Psychologist, is an Associate Professor of Psychiatry and Director of Research at JFK Partners. Dr. Hepburn is PI or Co-PI on 18 current research protocols and has authored 38 peer-reviewed publications. Her research interests include: autism development, outcome, and co-occurring with other conditions, and interventions to promote adaptive coping skills.

Cost: $49.95 per DVD

Online ordering: www.media-products.com

Questions about this product can be directed to:
Dina Johnson at JFK Partners 303-724-7673 or dina.johnson@ucdenver.edu.

This product was developed in collaboration between JFK Partners and Developmental Pathways.

